

Rotation Defense Guide Chart (2 blocker system, blocking angle)

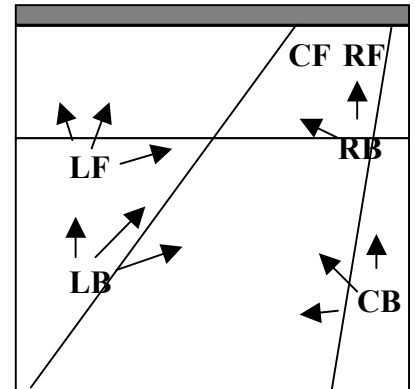

Attack coming into our left.

LB has tips over blockers, and tips to middle.
RB has deep angle.
CB has line.
RF goes a little deeper than in perimeter.

Attack coming into our middle

LB has tips over blockers.
RF assists with tips.
CB and RB defend corners.

Attack coming into our right

RB has tips over blockers, and tips to middle.
LB has deep angle.
CB has line.
LF goes a little deeper than in perimeter.

This is a guide only, and displays the starting “Read” positions.

Diggers will have to quickly “Go” from “Read” to “Stop” position, when they see their blockers, and the ball.

This defense leaves the deep center and sharp angle open for hard attacks. It covers Line and Tips well.
